

Letters regarding Sentencing Hearings in Criminal Cases

All letters regarding Sentencing Hearings in criminal cases will be filed electronically by the Office of Probation and Pretrial Services. Letters must not be filed electronically by the parties. Letters will be filed at the time the Presentence Investigation Report (PSI) is filed. For those letters received after the PSI is filed, Probation and Pretrial Services will file such letters as soon as they are received. The accessibility to the letters will be restricted to the court and case participants.
